Shilee T. Mullin Selected to the 2012 Great Plains Super Lawyers List

Shilee T. Mullin, Partner of Fredericks Peebles & Morgan, has been selected to the 2012 Great Plains Super Lawyers list that recognizes prominent attorneys who have accomplished a high-degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Through the multiphase rating process, Ms. Mullin was among the mere five percent of attorneys in Nebraska named to the Super Lawyers list.

Ms. Mullin received her Juris Doctorate degree from Creighton University School of Law in 2000 and joined the Fredericks Peebles & Morgan team in August 2002. Her practice areas range from Federal Indian law, trial advocacy and regulatory jurisdiction to gaming law, commercial transactions and appellate advocacy. Ms. Mullin became a partner of the firm in 2009.

“We are proud of Shilee for her inclusion in the 2012 Great Plains Super Lawyers list,” said Lance Morgan, Managing Partner of Fredericks Peebles & Morgan. “This high honor further exemplifies our mission to obtain the best results for our clients.” In addition, Conly Schulte, Senior Partner of the firm, commented, “This recognition confirms what we knew all along, that Shilee is a super lawyer.”

The Super Lawyers rating service evaluates outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have distinguished themselves in their legal practice. The selection process is rigorous and results in a third-party validation of the attorneys’ professional accomplishments. The objective is to create a comprehensive and credible list of dignified attorneys that can be used as a resource to assist other attorneys and consumers in their search for legal counsel.
