

2020 SUMMER LAW CLERKS

Fredericks Peebles & Patterson LLP is dedicated to the representation of American Indian tribes and Native American organizations throughout the United States. Our gifted, dynamic, and diverse team of attorneys includes tribal members who are committed and accomplished advocates for tribal governments and organizations. The firm's singular mission is seeking justice for Indian tribes and their citizens by promoting, protecting, and preserving tribal sovereignty, culture, and resources.

The firm is seeking applications from second year law students for 2020 Summer Law Clerks for its offices in Louisville, Colorado; Rapid City, South Dakota; and Sacramento, California. Applicants must be enrolled in an ABA accredited law school. Experience or coursework in tribal and Federal Indian Law is required. Applicants must also possess excellent analytical, research, and communication skills as well as the ability to work independently and as a team member in a fast-paced environment. The firm offers a competitive hourly wage for a 10-week summer position.

Applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, writing sample, and law school transcript to Solveig Monson, the firm's Chief Operating Officer at smonson@ndnlaw.com by Monday, September 30, 2019. The cover letter should indicate your preference for each office location by marking 1 next to your preferred location, followed by 2, and 3 and including the chart in your cover letter. If you are not applying for consideration at a particular office location, please indicate this in your cover letter.
