“Best Lawyers in America”

Sept. 25, 2019 — Best Lawyers has selected six attorneys from Fredericks Peebles & Patterson LLP for inclusion in its “Best Lawyers in America” for 2020. They are Thomas W. Fredericks, Jeremy J. Patterson, Patrick R. Bergin, Rebecca Kidder, Jeffrey Rasmussen, and Thomasina Real Bird.

The attorneys, all recognized in the practice area of Native American Law, will be featured in the 26th edition of “Best Lawyers in America.” They were chosen through a comprehensive peer-review evaluation, with nearly 94,000 eligible attorneys around the world casting 8.3 million votes.

“‘Best Lawyers in America’ has become the standard for highlighting top legal talent in this country,” said Jeremy Patterson, Fredericks Peebles & Patterson attorney and spokesperson. “It’s a great honor to be included in this publication, and for our firm to be recognized for its skill and experience in the practice area of Native American Law.”

This has been a big year for the firm, which announced in April that Jeremy Patterson, Patrick Bergin and Michael Robison were joining Tom Fredericks and John Peebles as equity partners. Formerly known as Fredericks Peebles & Morgan, the firm also unveiled its new name.

“We remain dedicated to providing our clients with strategic and innovative counsel,” Patterson said. “We look forward to continuing our work in Indian Country in the coming years.”
