Fredericks Peebles & Patterson Attorney Thomasina Real Bird is Named to 2020 Colorado Super Lawyers List

Mar. 16, 2020 — Super Lawyers announced this month that Thomasina Real Bird, partner and attorney with Fredericks Peebles & Patterson LP, has been named to the 2020 Colorado Super Lawyers list. Real Bird, who works at the firm's Louisville office, is one of just 5 percent of Colorado lawyers to receive this distinction.

Real Bird, who joined Fredericks Peebles & Patterson in 2007, represents clients in all areas of tribal and federal Indian law. She is Ihanktonwan Nakota, Sicangu Lakota, and an enrolled member of the Yankton Sioux Tribe.

Super Lawyers selects attorneys through a multiple-phase selection process, which incorporates peer nominations, peer evaluations, and independent research. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement.

"The Colorado Super Lawyers List is a valuable resource that highlights the top legal talent in our state," said Jeremy Patterson, Fredericks Peebles & Patterson attorney and spokesperson. "We're proud of Thomasina, and her recognition is a great honor for all of us."

This is a significant year for the award-winning firm. Not only did its Colorado and California offices earn top-tier rankings in the 2020 U.S. News & World Report and Best Lawyers "Best Law Firms" list, Best Lawyers selected six Fredericks Peebles & Patterson attorneys for inclusion in "Best Lawyers in America" for 2020: Thomas W. Fredericks, Jeremy J. Patterson, Patrick R. Bergin, Rebecca Kidder, Jeffrey Rasmussen, and Thomasina Real Bird.

"We remain dedicated to providing our clients with strategic and innovative counsel," Patterson said. "We look forward to continuing our work in Indian Country in the coming years."
